

The Dan Patrick Network: Not Just a Politician—A Syndicate

Dan Patrick Pulled in over $6.2 million from 486 donors in 2024.

Top donors:

Defend Texas Liberty PAC ($1,000,000)

Susquehanna International Group ($750,000)

Silver Eagle Beverages ($250,000)

Midland Energy Inc ($220,000)

Texas Sands ($200,000) Industries: Securities & investment, oil & gas, casinos, and liquor.

Translation: The “Lieutenant Governor of Texas” is basically a walking billboard for PACs, energy tycoons, and casino cash. If you thought he was fighting for the little guy, check the donor list—he’s fighting for whoever writes the biggest check.

Addresses That Keep Popping Up:

- 11451 Katy Fwy Ste 215, Houston, TX 77079 (the nerve center for half the LLCs and “non-profits”)
- 201 Vanderpool Ln Apt 141, Houston, TX 77024 (personal and business filings)
- 15035 Hidden Valley Waters Dr, Cypress, TX 77429 (residence and business)
- 52 Benthaven Isle, Montgomery, TX 77356 (lake house, business, and “management” filings)
- Multiple PO Boxes and “Suite” addresses—classic move to keep the real money and ownership hidden.

How the Game Is Played

- LLCs, LPs, and Non-Profits:

Every angle is covered—media, real estate, “charity,” and entertainment. If one entity gets heat, the rest keep rolling. If the public wants transparency, they hit a wall of paperwork and mailbox addresses.
- Family and Associates:

Janetlea Patrick, Umesh Jain, and a parade of Goebbs, Scruggs, and other relatives/associates are sprinkled through the filings—classic dynasty building.

- Dissolved and “In Existence” Entities:
When a company outlives its usefulness (or gets too hot), it’s quietly dissolved. The rest keep the money moving.
- Non-Profits as PR Shields:
“Be An Angel Fund,” “PTSD Foundation,” “Second Most Ministries”—all great for tax breaks, donor lists, and public image, while the real action happens in the for-profit shells.

Translation:

Dan Patrick isn’t just a politician—he’s a business syndicate with a radio station, a real estate portfolio, a sports market, and a “charity” for every occasion. The public trust? Just another asset to be leveraged, flipped, or dissolved when the heat’s on.
